What is it?

A festival. A day. A movement

Every last Saturday of November, the day following Black Friday, thousands of artists and cultural organisations get together in a unique festival supporting social causes through their show.

Do you want to be one of them?

+700	+10.500	+100	+150.000
FS Events	Artists	Localities	Asistants

Why being part of?

1. To be part of an international community of artists and cultural organisations that are creating a new day all across the world.
2. To be a reference of social innovation in your city and community.
3. Be a fairer future maker. Showcase the major role of arts and culture building a better world.

"Fair Saturday recognises the massive role that arts and culture can play in building a stronger and fairer society"

– Nicola Sturgeon,
First Minister of Scotland

How to participate

1. Save the date and include your event into the Fair Saturday festival...or create a new one!
2. Identify a Social Project to support and decide how!
3. Register at www.fairsaturday.org and include all the details. You will be a leading entity of the #FairSaturday movement.

If you need any help, contact us! info@fairsaturday.org

How to support a social project?

1. Give them public recognition for their every day amazing work!
 2. Let them explain their cause and spread their message to your audience.
 3. Donate them part of the benefits of your event, tickets or donations.
- You decide to whom and how!*
